

I strongly oppose lifting restrictions on concentration of ownership of broadcast outlets. I believe the health of our democracy depends on expanding media access, and this measure moves in the opposite direction.